STOCKMANS CHOICE AUCTION

Welcome to Stockmans Choice Auction. This guide takes you through the selling process step by step, with clear instructions and resources to prepare your cattle for auction. Our goal is to keep things simple, transparent, and stress-free —so you can focus on presenting your livestock with confidence while we handle the rest.

We require a minimum of three head consigned females per sale or one registered bull per sale and all animals must meet our quality guidelines. Videos will be taken by your Stockmans Choice Agent to be included on your listings. All listings will include clear information on cattle location and any relevant background data.

Before you list, please review our minimum health specifications so you know exactly what we expect. We're here to help you present your livestock in the best possible light, while ensuring our buyers know exactly what they're bidding on.

Want to maximize your sale? Sellers can offer additional health standards and designations such as Bangs Vaccination, Home Raised, Registered, Age Source Verified, F1, Certified, Godlen Certified or Pregnancy AI.
